

Home

The LAW OFFICE OF RICHARD B. SABRA & ASSOCIATES concentrates on domestic tax and business planning, including creative and effective estate and trust planning and administration, as well as asset preservation for clients throughout Florida. The firm is committed to delivering superior client service, cost effectively, with a focus on results. The firm's principal, RICHARD B. SABRA, has an LL.M. (Master of Laws) in Taxation from the University of Miami and has practiced law in South Florida for over a quarter century. The firm takes pride in its well deserved reputation of legal excellence and integrity. Firm clients appreciate the advantages of working on a personal level with an attorney committed to individualized service who truly values longstanding attorney/client relationships.

